SECTION 2 – ACADEMIC DETAILSSubject objective/s and broad content:

The objective of this subject is to provide students with the knowledge and skills they need to understand and engage with interpretations and expressions of contemporary spirituality in the wider public discourse. The broad content of this subject includes an exploration and understanding of one's own spiritual story, how contemporary spirituality is understood and expressed, and approaches to facilitating the exploration of contemporary spiritual experience utilising language, symbols and norms that allow for inclusive conversation in a pluralist and secular cultural context.

Learning outcomes for subject:

1. Demonstrate capacity for critical self-awareness in dialogue with diverse spiritual themes and perspectives
2. Analyse and interpret spiritual themes in diverse literature and media sources
3. Design and implement an investigation in relation to a question of contemporary spiritual relevance
4. Disseminate the findings of spiritual investigation in publicly accessible format and language
