SECTION 2 – ACADEMIC DETAILS

Unit Descriptor

Provide below a brief unit description, which includes a summary of the key content of the unit.

This unit introduces students to the foundational concepts, qualities and skills underpinning the therapeutic relationship and the counselling process. The course provides opportunities for reflection, insight, skill acquisition and growth in both personal and professional domains, particularly considering personal worldviews and assumptions to inform culturally aware counselling. Counsellor wellbeing and self-care are introduced and addressed as essential components of professional counselling practice.

Learning Outcomes for the Unit

Learning outcomes for unit:

- 1. Examine foundational concepts, qualities and skills required for effective counselling practice.
- 2. Evaluate personal attributes, demonstrating self-awareness in relation to assumptions, strengths, skills, and vulnerabilities to inform professional and culturally aware counselling practice.
- 3. Identify personal risk factors and resilience strategies, identifying areas for ongoing learning and growth, in order to inform both clinical practice and personal wellbeing and self-care.
