Course Overview Description

Looking for a diploma course that can shape you holistically for Christian ministry while offering you flexibility and specialisation options? Tabor College's Diploma in Ministry and Theology may be just what you need! Our smaller class sizes and personalised learning experience will help you engage in four interdependent formation domains: theology, spirituality and personhood, contextual studies and ministry, and reflective disposition and practice. You can choose to focus on Christian Studies, Ministry Practice, Spiritual Direction, Children, Youth and Families, Creative Arts, or Contextual Studies, depending on your interests and goals.

Professional Outcomes

Tabor's Diploma of Ministry and Theology is a great way to discern your direction in life and prepare for a range of meaningful career opportunities or further study. Our program will equip you with biblical, theological, and professional knowledge and skills that allow you to read and interpret scripture, deepen your understanding of faith for personal growth and public communication, expand your knowledge of the helping sectors, and discern your place and role as an intelligent Christian practitioner. You can also choose elective units in areas like counselling, pastoral care, and youth work.
