Course Overview Description

The Master of Divinity is a comprehensive course that equips you with the skills and knowledge required for Christian ministry. Throughout the course, you'll gain an advanced and integrated understanding of Christian ministry, including an extended understanding of the underlying principles and concepts of Church history, biblical and theological studies, and engagement in ministry and mission. You'll also learn how to critically and faithfully analyse the biblical text, evaluate contemporary biblical scholars' interpretations, and construct and convey a clear, integrated, and independent exposition of biblical and theological and vocational ideas in diverse contexts.

Professional Outcomes

Upon graduation, you'll be well-equipped to pursue various professional opportunities. You can find employment in local churches in roles that relate to your area of ministry specialisation, such as pastoral leadership or pastoral care. Alternatively, the Master of Divinity opens the door to further postgraduate ministry/theological study, which will enable you to find employment in Christian tertiary education institutions.
